THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DEPTT. OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT. OF CULTURE) (KUMARI SELJA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) The Hon'ble Supreme Court has in its judgement dated 4.10.94 directed the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) to include Sanskrit as an elective subject in the syllabus under consideration and to make necessary amendment in the syllabus within a period of three months. As per the 1975-76 Language Teaching Scheme of the CBSE, Sanskrit already enjoys the status of an elective subject and, therefore, the directive of the Hon'ble Supreme Court stands complied with. Further, the CBSE has issued another circular dated 13.12.1994 to all its affiliated schools reiterating that Sanskrit continues to be one of the elective languages in the Secondary School curriculum of the Board.
